

Introduction to Interdisciplinary Collaborative Team Practice

September 18-22, 2023, 9am-4:30pm
This training will take place in person at:
192 Spadina Ave, the Centre for Social Innovation

YOUR COLLABORATIVE TRAINING TEAM

Deborah Graham, B.A. Hons, LL.B., Acc.FM (OAFM) – Legal Professional

Deborah teaches collaborative practice, mediation and negotiation at Osgoode Hall Law School, Lincoln Alexander Law School, OBA and LSO programs, OACP, OAFM and IACP conferences and through The Mediation Training Centre. She is a contributor to Settling Family Law Cases and the upcoming Family Law Contracts book, co-author of A Guide to a Sensible Divorce and has an upcoming podcast: www.onceuponaconversation.com

Victoria Smith JD, Acc. F.M.(OAFM) – Legal Professional

Victoria is an internationally recognized collaborative family lawyer, mediator and trainer. For more than 25 years she has confined her practice to settlement work – Collaborative Practice and Mediation. She practices in Toronto at Resolve Dispute Resolution which she co-founded with her daughter, Alexa Turner. www.resolvedr.com

Alison Anderson CFP CFDS ACP - Financial Professional

Alison Anderson is a certified financial planner, trained family mediator, and Advanced Collaborative Professional. For over 14 years, Alison has devoted her practice to clients in family law matters and focused exclusively in the areas of Collaborative Practice and Mediation. Based in Ontario, Alison is a member of the Board of OACP and co-author of A Guide to a Sensible Divorce. www.alisonanderson.ca

Laurie Stein LLB, MSW, RSW - Family Professional

Laurie is a child, youth, individual and family therapist, mediator and a Collaborative Family Professional. She works with parents to create a parenting plan, discuss parenting and child adjustment, and facilitates the larger team meetings. Laurie has trained widely in the Ontario Collaborative community, and is a trainer with multiple training teams and partners. www.connectionschildandfamily.com

Christine Kim - Family Professional

Christine Kim is an experienced family mediator specializing in parenting matters. Christine graduated from the University of Toronto, receiving her Master of Social Work and a Graduate Certificate in the Interdisciplinary Collaborative Program in Ethnic, Immigration and Pluralism Studies. She is an Accredited Family Mediator with the Ontario Association of Family Mediation, a Family Professional with Collaborative Practice Toronto and a registered Social Worker. Christine is a co-founder and trainer of the Mediation Training Centre mediationtrainingcentre.com

For any questions please email Jasper at hallowsjasper@gmail.com
Click here to register- Link to the registration form

COLLABORATIVE
PRACTICE

Resolving Disputes Respectfully